

Postgraduate Programme

“New Methods in Physiotherapy”

Physiotherapy Department, School of Health and Care Science
University of West Attika

In the Department of Physiotherapy of the University of West Attika operates the Postgraduate Program in the School of Health and Care Science entitled: “New Methods in Physiotherapy”

The objective of the MSc is the scientifically substantiated transmission of advanced knowledge, evidence-based methodologies, technical and research results in the scientific field of Physiotherapy, with emphasis on the prevention, improvement and holistic treatment of pathological, congenital and acquired conditions, as well as in the musculoskeletal, respiratory and nervous systems. The modules of the postgraduate program refer to prevention, improvement, therapeutic exercise, holistic treatment and functional rehabilitation.

The purpose of the program is: The promotion of knowledge and the development of research in relevant to the scope of the MSc programme scientific areas of physiotherapy and the creation of a high level of physiotherapists.

Learning Outcomes: Upon completion of their program, postgraduate students are expected to:

- Have acquired high scientific training and specialized skills, i.e. knowledge, capabilities and social / methodological skills in working or study conditions.
- To recognize the professional position, attitudes and beliefs of the modern physiotherapist in order to serve the social process and to be active in scientific, research and professional bodies.
- Understand and manage the needs of patients with Respiratory, Musculoskeletal and Neurological problems resulting in high quality health care.
- To perform clinical reasoning and research planning in the field of Respiratory, Musculoskeletal and Neurological Physiotherapy.

- Government Gazette (ΦΕΚ) Decision of the Administrator for the Establishment of the postgraduate.
- Government Gazette 1st Regulation Amendment of the MSc.
- Government Gazette 2nd Amendment of the Administrative Decision for Establishment of the MSc.
- Government Gazette 2nd Amendment of Study Regulations of the MSc in New Methods in Physiotherapy of the Physiotherapy Department.